Every human being is "wonderfully made" by our Creator (Psalm 139). God cares deeply and specifically about each of our bodies, and our Savior Jesus became flesh and blood for our body's redemption. And yet so many struggles relate to our body: appearance, aging, disability, gender, sexuality, race, and the deep need for human connection.

Join us beginning September 18 as we explore how the Gospel speaks to these areas in profound, powerful, and often surprising ways. The aim of this series, "Wonderfully Made," is to encourage each of us in the Bible's hopeful message, and also to train us to love our neighbors wholly.

Sermons will all be recorded and posted online each week at www.churchofthemessiah.org/wonderfully-made.
