

TOUGH QUESTIONS
SUMMER 2022 SERMON SERIES

Who Am I?

Who am I?

*How we answer this question makes all the difference because it connects us to some of our most basic needs:
our need for identity,
our need for purpose,
our need to belong and
our need for self-worth.*

Barna, describes our young adults (18-35) as a generation gripped by worry. Anxiety about important decisions was widespread among our young adults (40%), as well as uncertainty about the future (40%), a fear of failure (40%) and a pressure to be successful (36%).

Barna Group is a research and resource organization focused on the intersection of faith and culture.

Tony Dungy

I was able to look at football as something that God was allowing me to do, not something that should define me.

I couldn't take my identity from this sport.

In the 1992 precedent setting ruling, Chief Justice Anthony Kennedy, in support of his pro-abortion position made this incomprehensible declaration:

“At the heart of liberty is the right to define one's own concept of existence, of meaning, of the universe, and of the mystery of human life.

I Am a Child of God

Yet to all who received Him, to those who believed in His name, He gave the right to become children of God... (John 1:12)

How great is the love the Father has lavished on us, that we should be called children of God! And that is what we are! (1 John 3:1)

Who Am I in Christ?

An identity in Christ is the only identity that will last for eternity and can continue to grow and change as we enter the different stages of our life.
