Church of the Messiah

Tim Maurer
Minister of Music

Tim Maurer spent 50 years in New York City, serving two decades as an NYPD officer and department vocalist. He also sang for the seven-time Grammy award winning Brooklyn Tabernacle Choir.

Tim is a lead singer, guitarist, and composer. He co-created 50,000 Watts-Radio Redemption, a cinematic rock opera inspired by his NYC life and police career.

He currently resides in the Hampton roads area of Virginia and is Minister of Music at Church of the Messiah in Chesapeake, Virginia.