

Abiding in the Living Word

The Word Of The Lord

*Thanks be to the God,
who has revealed Himself to us.*

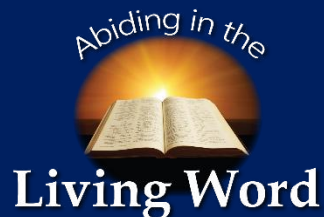

For the word of God is living and active, sharper than any two-edged sword, piercing to the division of soul and of spirit, of joints and of marrow, and discerning the thoughts and intentions of the heart.

Hebrews 4:12

For the Word that God speaks is alive and full of power [making it active, operative, energizing, and effective]; it is sharper than any two-edged sword, penetrating to the dividing line of the breath of life (soul) and [the immortal] spirit, and of joints and marrow [of the deepest parts of our nature], heart...

Hebrews 4:12 (Amplified)

Above all, you must understand that no prophecy of Scripture came about by the prophet's own interpretation of things. For prophecy never had its origin in the human will, but prophets, though human, spoke from God as they were carried along by the Holy Spirit.

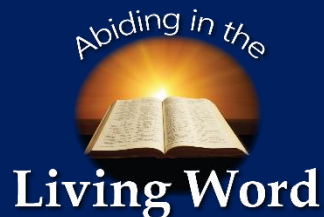

2 Pet. 1:20–21

Bishop John Jewel (1522-71) was a leading Protestant reformer who did much to start to define what was unique and different about the Anglican Church.

The Scriptures are 'the Word of God'. What title can there be of greater value? What may be said of them to make them of greater authority, than to say, "The Lord hath spoken them"? that "they came not by the will of men, but holy men of God spake as they were moved by the Holy Ghost"?... It is of more majesty than the word of an angel... For it is the Word of the living and almighty God, of the God of hosts... By this Word he maketh his will known...

Tyrants, and Pharisees, and heretics, and the enemies of the cross of Christ have an end; but the Word of God hath no end. No force shall be able to decay it. The gates of hell shall not prevail against it. Cities shall fall: kingdoms shall come to nothing: empires shall fade away as the smoke; but the truth of the Lord shall continue for ever. Burn it, it will rise again: kill it, it will live again: cut it down by the root, it will spring again.

Above all, you must understand that no prophecy of Scripture came about by the prophet's own interpretation of things. For prophecy Mark 12:18-27 never had its origin in the human will, but prophets, though human, spoke from God as they were carried along by the Holy Spirit.
